

State of development of autonomous systems by components and areas of application

Results of a survey of 37 national and 32 international experts.

<sup>2)</sup> Percentage of respondents who currently assign rating 4 or 5 to the areas of application (cf. figure B 3-2).
